What you say about

"I have just discovered your site and I must say I'm very impressed. I found it easy to use and the walk maps and descriptions seem to be almost idiot proof.

The site gets better by the day and I have nothing but praise for what you are trying to achieve. More power to your elbow and keep up the good work."

Phil Goodman, Derbyshire, October 2002

"The fabulous go4awalk site should be as essential a preparation for the great outdoors as packing a map."

The Sunday Times 'Doors' Magazine, Sept 2001

"Thank you for many hours of enjoyment on your walks."

Paula Mead, January 2004

"... excellent web site for any of you who want to go for a walk this weekend - be it in the Lakes or anywhere else"

Stuart Maconie, BBC Radio 2, May, 2002

"After looking around the internet for some time to find sites for walking, I stumbled onto your site from another, and WOW! The whole site is excellent, but I'm hooked to the walks page.

There is now a real battle in my family for the computer because "Dads looking at maps again" (sorry kids!)

I now have the site set up as my home page on my works laptop so I can spread the word further"

Bob Jack, Sunny(!), Cheshire, April 2002

Don't leave home without it."

The Net Magazine, Sept 2001

"Your website is superb, and in terms of planning walks is becoming almost as indispensable as the 7 volumes of the gospel according to St Wainwright."

Martin Price, August 2003

"impressive"

TGO Magazine, March, 2004

"go4awalk.com has given me some fantastic walking ideas. Thank you very much"

James Wetherell, West Yorkshire, Sept 2001

"I am very impressed by our route guides... the instructions in general are excellent and contain exactly the right level of detail... I shall recommend it to all my walking friends. A great advantage your site must have over books, (is) that you can keep the information fresh and up to date. Great value..."

Dr Bob Baldock, July 2003

"... offers the visitor a superb variety of up-to-date walking routes throughout the UK."

Computer Active Web Guide, Winter 2001

"I have just found your site and I think it's brilliant. I'm tickled pink to find Staffordshire amongst those areas already mapped. We are usually by-passed because Derbyshire, (our neighbouring county) has got such wonderful countryside, much of it in the Peak District National Park.

But Staffordshire also has lots to offer and its great to see Staffs up there with the rest.

Thank you for such an interesting site. I look forward to visiting again and again."

Beverley Dawson, Stoke-on-Trent, August 2001

"This is a great site"

Douglas Jeffries, September 2003
