The walk shown is for guidance only and should not be attempted without suitable maps.

Level walk through pretty Essex villages

S Go SSE (right) on the B183 for 800m past a house called 'Woodlands'. About 100m beyond the house go E (left) on a signed footpath beside a fence. Go through a small copse and bear SE (half-right) on a signed path across a field to reach the edge of a wood. Go E (left) along the edge of the wood to reach a road. Go E (left) and NE on the road to reach a junction in Hope End Green next to the village notice board. (2 km)

① Go SE (right) to follow a lane and then a signed track that bears S and then SE to reach a drive next to a yellow house. Go S on the drive bearing SW to reach the crossroads at Hellman's Cross. (2 km)

The Flitch Way (FW) is a 24km (15 miles) footpath following the course of a former railway connecting Bishop's Stortford with Braintree in Essex.
