Coastal Cliffs and Pretty Parkland

④ Continue E through Upper Sheringham past the church and pub and into Cranfield Lane. Almost immediately go NE (left) on a track (Butts Lane) to reach the A1082. Go N on the A1082 to return to Sheringham and the start. (2½ km)
