Surrey's most popular viewpoint

➊ Go N (left) out of the car park along the road to reach Mickleham church. Continue N on the road to cross the A24 and then a bridge over the River Mole. Continue N on the road beyond to reach a (grass) triangular junction. (2½ km)

➌ Go W (left) on the lane past the main gate to Norbury House to reach a picnic area. Go S (left) through a wooden barrier to follow a clear track through the trees. At a fork go S (right) on a bridleway that bears SE to reach a car park and then a road. (2km)

➍ Go W (right) up the road for 200m and then SE on a signed path that descends through a field, a wood and a 2nd field to reach a road. Go E (left) on the road past the remains of Westhumble Chapel to reach a crossroads. Go SE on Adlers Lane and continue SE at a junction. At a crossing path go S (right) on a footpath (signed 'Dorking') to reach a 2nd crossing path - The North Downs Way (NDW). (1½ km)

➎ Go E (left) on the NDW to pass under the railway and then cross the A24. Go through the car park opposite to reach the River Mole. Cross the river (via the stepping stones or the bridge to the N) and continue E on the NDW climbing steeply to the summit of Box Hill (trig point, information roundal). (2km)
